

HOME and AWAY

Thirteen Stories

Steve Clorfeine

These stories were written over a span of 45 years, 1981-2026. Memory pieces, written at the time they occurred or completed years later. In the stories I am at home in New York at different stages of life, and I am away studying, teaching, traveling in Europe, Nepal, India.

"A beautiful memoir of a life of movement, meticulously observed."
Jonathan Fox, co-founder of Playback Theatre
